- Who we are: The Young Muslim Association (YMA) is a grassroots, Islamic youth organization established in 1999 with the vision of Imam Sayyid Hassan Al-Qazwini and dedicated volunteers
- What we do: We provide Islamic programs and services for English speaking Muslims and non-Muslims alike.
- What programs we provide: We provide various events throughout the calendar year. We provide the community with over 127 days of programming throughout the year: in other words the YMA puts on a function 1 out of every 3 days. Our weekly Friday Night Program is our flagship event. Others include a nightly program during the holy month of Ramadhan and Ashuraa, community education classes, picnics, spiritual outreach, and others.
- What services we provide: We provide many unique services to the English speaking community including our magazine and website which provides recorded lectures and prayers. We also offer spiritually guided retreats and pilgrimages including Hajj. Volunteers who wish to give more of their time are asked to help out at various capacities within the YMA where they receive mentored experience of planning, coordinating, and managing the YMA's programs.
- Where our programs are provided: All YMA functions are graciously hosted at the Islamic Center of America, with the assistance of ICA staff and volunteers. The Islamic Center, located in Dearborn, is the largest mosque in North America, situated in a city home to the largest concentration of Muslims in America.
- How many members we have: We have touched hundred's of thousand of people through our programs and services. We currently have over 10,000 international mailing addresses and 5,000 email addresses.
- How we are funded: We are solely funded by generous donations and contributions from our congregation.
- What is our mission: The focus of our mission is to advance morality and promote an Islamic way of life amongst the younger generation.
- How we are structured: The YMA functions under the auspices of the Islamic Center of America, mentored by advisors, run by young Muslims and spiritually guided by Imam Sayyid Hassan Al-Qazwini.
